

Today, I got a rabbit. I named him Fluffy even though Tameka thinks I should call him Winter because he has very white fur. I am not calling him Winter, that's preposterous. I told mom that I wanted a cat. Even if they are both crepuscular, a rabbit is not a cat. If mom had gotten me a cat, and his fur was as white as Fluffy's, then maybe I would call him Winter because that would be a cool cat's name. I don't want Fluffy hopping around thinking he's a cool cat, he's just a rabbit.
